

St. Michael's Messenger

May 04, 2025

The Rector's Corner

Dear Brothers and Sisters of St. Michael's,

Happy Easter once more! Yes, I am back and yes, it was great to step away and recharge. My thanks to Cn. Stephen who served on Sunday. Nothing like getting a message from the Canon to the Ordinary stating that he had fun here, Alleluia!

The planning for celebrating the life of John Hill Moss has come together. On Friday, May 9, at 2 PM, there will be a Visitation for the family in our Parish Hall. On Friday, May 9, at 3 PM, there will be a service (Burial of the Dead, Rt. II, with Holy Communion and The Commendation). All are welcome to attend. The Mosses attended our earlier service. John was an avid wood turner, a mechanical engineer, and even served as Senior Warden of Grace Calvary Episcopal Church in Clarkesville, GA. Please keep the Moss Family in your prayers and please consider coming to support them in Christian love during a difficult time of transition. The Committal for John will take place at a later date (for the family) at Grace Calvary.

Speaking of prayers, did you know that The Order of the Daughters of the King are our prayer warriors? Hopefully so. But did you know that there is a Prayer Requests Box located in the Narthex of the building? It is the honor for the Daughters to pray for us. What they do is held in the strictest of confidence. If you are moved by the Holy Spirit, then perhaps the Daughters can pray for you...

In the narthex... a hidden prayer resource

Have a great week, everyone. Alleluia, Christ has risen. The Lord has risen indeed. Alleluia! See y'all at church on Sundays and Wednesdays.

Faithfully,
Fr. Dan
